JAMES FISK JR. SIGNED STOCK WITH RELATED ITEMS

This is the finest and rarest autographed stock I've encountered in many, many years. Exciting as far as Rarity, Condition, but most importantly so very rich in history. Not just any history... New York City history. "Much of Fisk's legend was over colored; yet it all had value to this Barnum-like railroad president and goes far to explain the power and prestige he enjoyed. Behind the ponderous silhouette of Fisk, the terribly sober Jay Gould worked unceasingly to exploit his opportunities, which now seemed boundless. Like the great military vassals of other times who might legitimately waylay merchants and pilgrims, unarmed bishops and abbots, or all who passed through their toll roads, so Gould and Fisk took tribute large and small along their right of way. The case of the Pennsylvania Blue Stone Company, a famous example, showed also their necessary alliance with a statesman such as Tweed. From the quarries of this flourishing company, the Erie had refused to carry building material into New York unless it received a ransom in the shape of a partnership in the business. What was the quarrying company worth without the railroad? Cut off from its market the company was compelled after a short struggle to accept Gould, Fisk and William Tweed as its partners—these directors of Erie seeing to it thereafter that no other stone was carried over their lines, while Tweed as the head of Tammany arranged that the city government should buy all of the company's stone at extremely favorable prices." (Excerpts from "Robber Barons" by Matthew Josephson).

NEW YORK AND PENNSYLVANIA BLUE STONE CO

A scarce and beautiful $1,000 Gold bond of the same company is being included. The rich blue color along with two attractive vignettes and two orange imprinted revenues make this a truly striking bond both in color and graphics. 37 of the original 40 coupons remain. Secretary "Mortimer Smith" signs this bond as well as the Fisk Stock at right. Superb condition.

JAMES FISK JR. - NEW YORK AND PENNSYLVANIA BLUE STONE CO

AG1. James Fisk Jr. 1834-1872 "The New York and Pennsylvania Blue Stone Company" Stock, State of New York, Certificate #10. 50 Shares, September 20th, 1870. Boldly signed as President by James Fisk Jr. at the front along with Mortimer Smith as Secretary, Issued to J. F. Kilgour and signed at back, also witnessed.

A bright orange imprinted revenue adds a splash of color along with a blue under printing. The condition is superb! Regarding Rarity: The great rarity of anything signed by Fisk is legendary. Few stocks are known signed and nearly all are issued to and signed at the back. Several inquiries with the most advanced collectors and research indicate thus far that no other examples of this stock have ever surfaced. It is entirely possible that it is unique. In my 27 years of specializing in collectible stocks and bonds, I have owned only 1 stock signed by Fisk. Auction records exist for lesser pieces well in excess of $20,000. The condition of this stock is exceptional in every way! As a bonus, this classic autographed stock is accompanied by four other pieces that will add to the story.

These 5 pieces are the start of a collection that will tell an interesting story of this turbulent but exciting time in New York City history. $20,000

STATE IMPROVEMENT FUND BOND OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

A City of N.Y. bond dated 1860 bearing a sub heading reading "Common Council, for regulating, grading, curb and guttering, flagging and paving streets and Avenues...." This piece helps one picture how much stone was required for the ever-changing City of NY in the 1860's & 70's. Fisk, Gould, and Tweed stuffed their pocket with cash overcharging the city for their stone needs. Still, in some ways, they had a large hand in constructing the city to what it is today. Keep in mind, that this very period of the 1870's showed tremendous development and changes throughout the city. Excellent Condition.

TAX RELIEF BOND OF THE CITY OF NY
A pretty Bond dated 1869 of the City of New York was issued just before the 1870 Fisk signed stock. Excellent Condition.

CITY OF NEW YORK DOCUMENT

To add to the story, an 1864 (Civil War Era) NY City document signed by "Boss Tweed". A fitting part of the story as he was involved in the plot with Fisk and Gould. Fine Condition.

THE WILD WEST

BILLY THE KID

Henry McCarty (1859 - 1881) better known as Billy the Kid, also known by the aliases Henry Antrim and William Harrison Bonney. A 19th century American frontier outlaw and gunman who was reputed to have killed 21 men, one for each year of his life. He was said to be friendly and personable at times, but he could also be short-tempered and determined. This made him a very dangerous outlaw, when combined with his shooting skills and cunning. He was little known in his own lifetime but was catapulted into legend in the year after his death when his killer, Sheriff Patrick Garrett, published a wildly sensationalistic biography of the outlaw called The Authentic Life of Billy, the Kid. Beginning with Garrett's account, Billy the Kid grew into a symbolic figure of the American Old West.

PATRICK GARRETT - ALABAMA GOLD & COPPER MINING CO
AG23. Patrick "Pat" Floyd Garrett (June 5, 1850 - February 28, 1908) American Old West lawman, bartender, buffalo hunter, and customs agent who was most known for killing "Billy the Kid" in 1881.

The infamous American outlaw and gunman was a participant in the Lincoln County War and was noted for killing 21 men, one for each year of his life. Billy was born Henry McCarty in New York City. He used aliases Henry Antrim and William Harrison Bonney through his short career. Pat Garrett, after developing a previous friendship with Billy became ambitious for money and was elected as sheriff of Lincoln County in November 1880. He trapped Billy in December. Billy was convicted on April 9, 1881, and was sentenced to be hanged. On April 28, he killed two deputies and escaped from jail. Sheriff Garrett found him in a house near Fort Sumner, New Mexico, and killed him on July 14th. There have been many disputes about how it happened or whether it happened at all. Still, at the time, the shooting solidified Garrett's fame as a lawman and gunman, and led to numerous appointments to law enforcement positions, as well as requests that he pursue outlaws in other parts of New Mexico. On December 20, 1901, Theodore Roosevelt, who became a personal friend of Garrett's, appointed him customs collector of El Paso, Texas. Garrett served for five years. Not being reappointed, had something to do with having a gambler friend come to a dinner where Teddy was quite embarrassed and scorned from the connection with the acquaintance. In 1908, Garrett ended up being shot twice and killed by Jesse Wayne Brazel over an argument dealing with grazing sheep on Garrett's land. Garrett's body was too tall for any pre-made coffins in town; so a special one had to be shipped in from El Paso. His funeral service was held March 5, 1908, and he was laid to rest next to his daughter, Ida. Stock, 200 Shares, 1899, Jarilla, Territory of New Mexico. Boldly Autographed by P. F. Garrett at front as Secretary. The back has a choice $1 revenue stamp autograph cancelled by Garrett "Dec 12 1899 P.E.G." An important piece of Western Americana! Rare! Excellent Condition. $4,500

JESSE JAMES - CHICAGO & ALTON RR
AG24. On Sept. 7, 1881, the James gang attempted their last train robbery of the Chicago & Alton train at Blue Cut, near Glendale, Missouri. The gang made off with $3000 in cash and jewelry. In less than a year, Jesse James would be dead. On April 3, 1882, Bob Ford with his brother Charles enters Jesse's home at about 8:27am. When Jesse turns to straighten a picture on the wall, Bob shoots him, killing him instantly. On Oct. 5, 1882, Frank James (Jesse's brother) surrendered to Missouri Governor Thomas Crittendon. Bob Ford, Jesse's killer was later shot down by Ed. O. Kelly in Ford's tent saloon in Crede, Colorado in 1892. By 1885 Frank James was acquitted on all charges and lived till he was 72 passing on February 18, 1915. Great! $200

NICHOLAS BIDDLE BANK OF THE UNITED STATES, PHILADELPHIA

AG28. Nicholas Biddle (1786-1844) American Scholar, Statesman, Financier. Biddle worked on a narrative of William Clark's Louisiana expedition. It was published in 1814 as History of the Expedition of Captains Lewis and Clark. Invited by President Monroe to become one of the five government directors of the (second) Bank of the United States. Critics at the time said Biddle's Bank was to blame for the Panic of 1819 because of its tight credit policy. The Panic of 1819 was the first major financial crisis in the United States. It featured widespread foreclosures, bank failures, unemployment, and a slump in agriculture and manufacturing. For example unemployment reached 75 percent in the American city of Philadelphia, and 1,800 workers were imprisoned for debt. In Baltimore, the unemployed set up a city of tents on the outskirts of the city. Biddle signs as President on this 1837 Bank of the United States 12 month note for £250 payable "at the County-house of Messrs. Bearing Bros & Co., London." Extremely Rare Type! Excellent Condition! $1,200

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER PUGET SOUND
& ALASKA STEAMSHIP CO
AG29. John D. Rockefeller Industrialist, Philanthropist. In 1863 Rockefeller first joined in building an oil refinery. He monopolized 85% of the industry and became the world's first billionaire. He hated waste and would target poorly run segments of the industry, driving poorly run competition out of business. He became the most detested man in the country and had a bodyguard continuously. Rockefeller gave 3/4 of a billion dollars to science and education. In one of the 1st public relations campaigns in history, Rockefeller would give a shiny new dime to whomever he would meet. This gorgeous stock is issued to Rockefeller and is boldly signed at back. Only 3 were issued to Rockefeller in this brown variety, 2 issued in the green version. Also signed by George D. Rogers, his private secretary as witness. Transferred to the "Treasurer Northern Pacific Railroad". Company incorporated in Washington state, 50 Shares, dated 1890. Stub at left. Excellent Condition. $7,000

WILLIAM B. ASTOR-MOHAWK & HUDSON RR AG38. William Backhouse Astor (1792-1875), Capitalist, was born in New York City, the son of John Jacob Astor. He is best known as the "augmenter of the Astor millions." He became a man of great wealth. On the death of his father in 1848, he succeeded to the rank of the richest man in the United States as some $18,000,000 out of $20,000,000 estate was left to William. The father's policy of buying real estate in the section of New York City south of Fifty-ninth St. between Fourth and Seventh Avenues was continued by William until the greater part of the fortune was invested in land and buildings. He thus became commonly known as the "landlord of New York." His fortune, estimated at about $50,000,000, was divided equally between his sons John Jacob and William. Stock transfer of the MOHAWK & HUDSON RAILROAD, dated 1836. Very nice signature! A nice portrait of Astor is included. Fresh Excellent Condition. $900

JAY COOKE SIGNED JAY COOKE & CO BANKERS AG44. Jay Cooke (1821-1905) American Financier. In the early months of the American Civil War, Cooke cooperated with the secretary of the treasury Salmon P. Chase in securing loans from the leading bankers in the Northern cities; his own firm was so successful that Chase engaged him as special agent for the sale of the $500,000,000 of so-called "five-twenty" bonds. Cooke quickly sold $11,000,000 more in bonds than had been authorized. In 1865, with the government facing pressing financial needs in the wake of disappointing sales of the new "seven-thirty" notes by the national banks, Cooke's services were again secured. He disposed of the notes, reaching a total of $830,000,000 which allowed the Union soldiers to be supplied and paid during the final months of the war. It was in this effort that he pioneered the use of price stabilization. Certificate of Deposit for $1,600 at 4% dated 1872, Jay Cooke signs for his company. 5c Imprinted Revenue. Extremely Rare! Only 1 found! A great example of Cooke's signature on a great piece. $950

MARTIN VAN BUREN LETTER & FREE FRANK

AG62. Martin Van Buren (1782-1862) Eighth President of the United States. 7⁷/₈" x 9³/₄" Letter reads "Lindenwald (New York) February. 25th, (18)45. My dear Sir, I cannot consistently with a rule which I have with the approbation of friends adopted in such matters give you the letter you desire, but you have my best wishes for your success. Respectfully & truly yours, M. Van Buren." Van Buren obviously had a policy of not writing letters of recommendation for people, especially individuals he did not know enough about. The Free frank is on the attached back sheet and shows seal paper loss otherwise is very attractive when folded to cover size. The letter is clear and attractive. $1,300

MILLARD FILLMORE LETTER

AG63. Millard Fillmore (1800-1874) Thirteenth President of the United States. 8¹/₄" x 10¹/₂" Autographed Letter Signed "Buffalo (NY), May 17, 1849. Hon. W. B. Preston Dr. Sir, I am told there is good cause on political grounds for the removal of Mr. McAlpine the Chief Engineer on the government dry dock in Brooklyn; and believing this to be so, I take the liberty of recommending Charles B. Stuart, the present State Engineer of this State to fill the place. Mr. Stuart has been a practiced engineer of high standing for the last 16 years, and now holds the highest office connected with that department in this state to which he was elected in 1847. I should think him in all respects well qualified to discharge the duties of the office, and therefore most earnestly and emphatically recommend his appointment. I am respectfully yours Millard Fillmore." A couple of very minor edge tears mentioned only for accuracy. Excellent Condition with Great Eye Appeal. $1,900

HORACE GREELEY LETTER

AG64. Horace Greeley (1811-1872), American editor; founder of the Republican party, reformer. His NY Tribune was America's most influential newspaper 1840-1870. Greeley used it to promote the Whig & Republican parties, as well as anti-slavery and a host of reforms. Crusading against the corruption of Ulysses S. Grant's Republican administration, presidential candidate in 1872 of a new Liberal Republican Party, he lost in a landslide. Autographed Letter Signed dated 1840 which deals with the "Log Cabin" newspaper. Dated the very year of the Harrison Campaign. An attractive letter; reasonably readable considering Greeley's fame for poor penmanship. Great Condition with stampless cover sheet attached. $950

HORACE GREELEY LETTER

AG65. Autographed Letter Signed dated 1847 responding to a request for his autograph. ABRAHAM LINCOLN
FUNERAL FLAG RELIC
AG77. This silk flag remnant is from a 36 star flag that adorned the interior of one of the funeral railroad cars in the Lincoln funeral train for the duration of its stop at Indianapolis, Indiana on April 30, 1865. The train arrived in Indianapolis at 7:00am that morning and departed at midnight. The copy photo shows Lincoln's car and the officer's car in the funeral train as it appeared on the journey from Washington, DC to Springfield, Illinois in April 1865. This flag was given to the prominent Indianapolis family of James G. McQuillen. Due to the nature of silk flags that deteriorate with age, these remnants are some of the few examples of what the flags looked like. 7" red & white remnant. A photo of the flag is included. Beautifully matted and ready for framing. Truly Outstanding!!! $350

PAN MOTOR COMPANY
AG123. DE, 1917-20, Stock. Printer-Goes.
Pan Motor Co. is one of the most unique swindles in automotive history. Samuel C. Pandolfo conceived the idea of a practical car built in a plant by workers who lived in company housing.
Pan Motor made extravagant claims of production and the public enabled him to net $9.5 million by selling stock to 70,000 people. The Court in 1919 found Pandolfo guilty of mail fraud.
Still, he attempted a new project, a Pan tractor and was arrested and this time found guilty and imprisoned. In 4 years the company did produce a total of 737 cars. Signed by Pandolfo. There are 2 thin spots, one at the vignette and another in the field at top right but nice eye appeal.
Becoming very scarce. An important piece. $150

Blue or Brown. Hamilton Bank Note, NY. The Hudson Motor Car Company made Hudson and other brand automobiles in Detroit, Michigan, from 1909 to 1957. The name "Hudson" came from J.L. Hudson, the founder of Hudson's Department Store. The company had a number of firsts for the auto industry, these included dual brakes, the use of dashboard oil-pressure and generator warning lights. $150

CONFEDERATE COTTON LOAN- £500

AG143. Jan. 29, 1863 Act, Criswell-118, Cotton Loan Bond issued in Europe by J. Henry Schroder & Co. and Emilie Erlanger & Co. Tri-valued at: 500 Pounds Sterling-12,500 French Francs-20,000 pounds of cotton. A key attraction of the Confederate bonds was that they were "cotton backed" and were exchangeable into New Orleans cotton at a rate of six pence sterling per pound (at a time when the going rate in England was better than twenty pence per pound). The catch was that the Confederate government undertook to deliver this cotton to one of its ports only after peace had been made -- while the war endured delivery had to be taken inland with the would-be recipient also having to run the Union blockade to get the cotton out. Signed by John Slidell, a U.S. and Confederate diplomat whose seizure with James M. Mason precipitated the Trent Affair during the American Civil War. Printed on quality heavy watermarked paper, very ornate engraved bond (the most attractive of all Confederate issues) with Liberty holding Confederate "Stars and Bars" leaning on bales of cotton and gazing across the sea. Nearly complete coupons at left and right. Truly a Classic! Popular and Very Important! Excellent Condition. $1,200

1870's Louisiana "Baby Bonds"

These 1870's bonds come with an interesting history. At the close of the Civil War, the federal government imposed a large tax on state bank notes. The state of Louisiana issued small bank notes and disguised them as interest-bearing bonds. These $5.00 "Baby Bonds" have a picture of a baby on the front. Thus the state avoided the tax. Everyone knew that they were worth the same as federally approved currency, so they were used throughout the state.

In the 1880's Louisiana's State Treasurer, Ed Bunker, had used the original plates to reprint these bonds with identical numbers. About $300,000 in counterfeit Baby Bonds were discovered in his safe deposit box. He fled to Brazil. These genuine $5.00 Baby Bonds each have their own serial number and Ed Bunker's facsimile signature. They make a great addition to any collection because of their size (5 1/2" x 3 1/4"), baby denomination, baby 7 1/2c coupons and charming vignette of a baby. AG184. Uncut sheet of 4 Bonds, uncancelled. $75 was originally incorporated in 1888 as The Potomac and Severn Electric Railway. In 1900, it changed its name to the Washington & Annapolis Electric Railway and in 1902, to the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railway. It was built by a group of Cleveland, Ohio, electric railway entrepreneurs to serve as a high-speed, show-piece line using the most advanced technology of the time. It served Washington, D.C.; Baltimore, MD and Annapolis, MD for 27 years, but the Great Depression and the rise of the automobile marked the end of the WB&A. Passenger service ceased in 1935 and only the Baltimore & Annapolis portion continued to operate.

 Remainders were often used by printers to fulfill currency orders due to the shortages of paper in the south caused by the Civil War. Of course, the odd denomination of $4 bills makes this sheet especially interesting. CU. $500
